

Tasks Galore

- ❖ Creative ideas for teachers, therapists, and parents working with exceptional children
- ❖ Full-color pictorial series of multi-modal tasks used in programs for children with autism
- ❖ Applicable to any early education or learning environment

Laurie Eckenrode

Pat Fennell

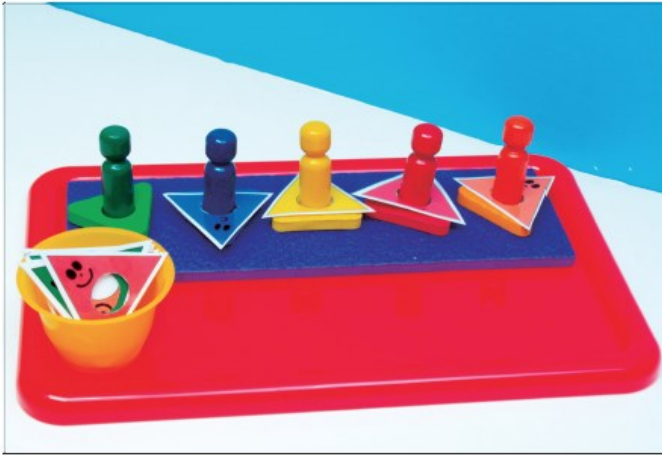

Kathy Hearsey

Revised Edition

Table of Contents

Introduction	4
Fine Motor Skills	8
Readiness	14
Language Arts	23
Math	36
Reasoning	48
Play	54
Resources	59

Readiness - Color Concepts

Place shapes onto colored pegs

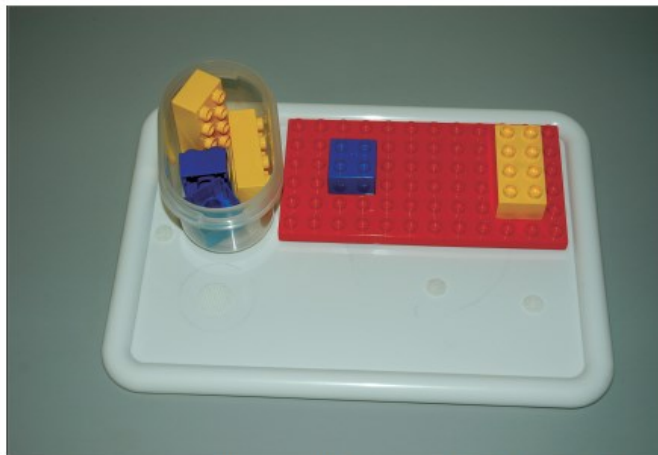

Color sort onto dowels

Color sort into cutouts

Sort and stack by color

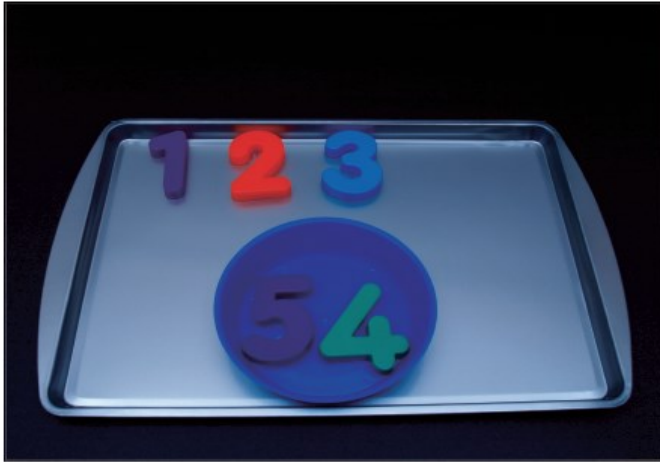

Sort colored Duplo® bricks

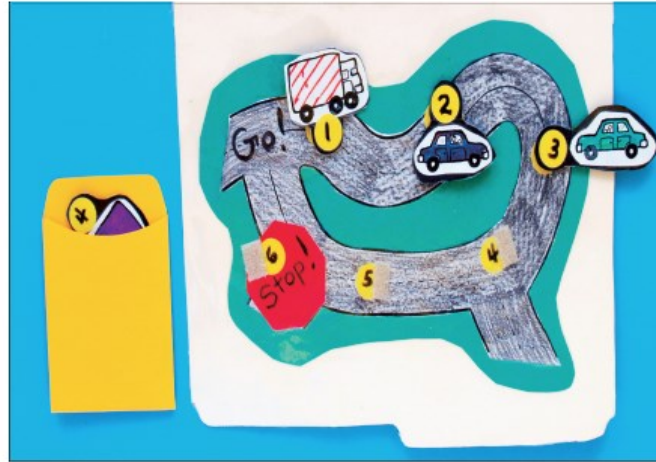

Color sort bands onto tubes

Math - Sequencing Numbers

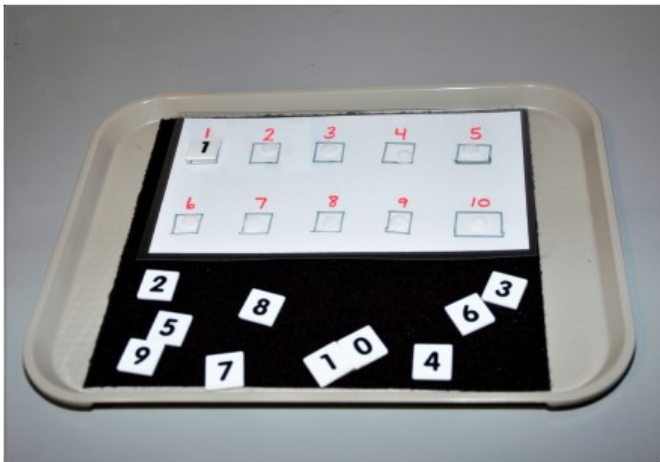

Sequencing magnetic numbers

Sequencing numbered vehicles

Sequencing UNO™ cards

Sequencing numerals by matching

Sequencing numbered interlocking puzzle pieces

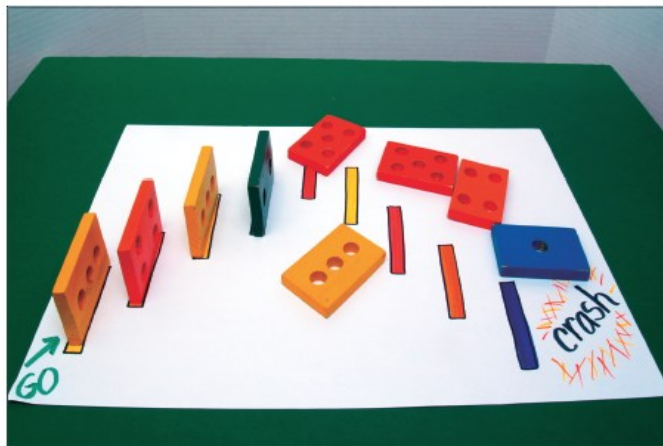

Sequencing numbered jars

Play - Games

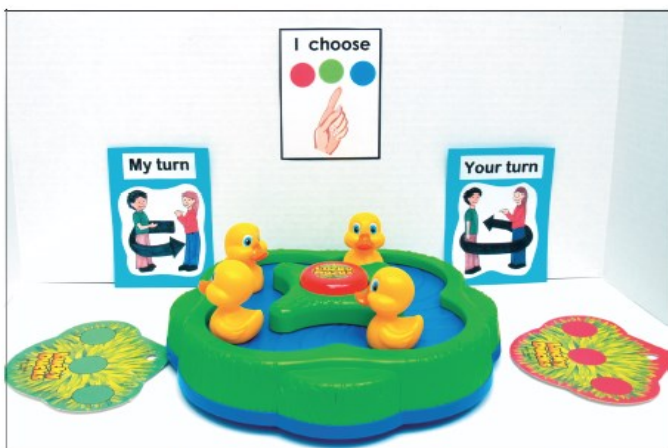

Unit-based LOTTO

Dominoes

Layout for "Go Fish"

Visual cues for turn-taking

Structure for
"Knock-knock" jokes

Color-coded jokes and answers

Tasks Galore

First in a delightful series!

Features over 250 full-color photos of highly organized, multisensory tasks

Designed for teachers, therapists, and parents

Assists in creating a fun and meaningful task collection of your own

Helps your student/child feel successful

The authors have extensive experience working with exceptional children and adults in their school, community, home, and/or job. They have also extensively trained professionals and parents around the world in structured teaching.

Visit our website:

www.tasksgalore.com

Revised Edition © Copyright 2013. All Rights Reserved Worldwide

