

Tasks Galore

For the Real World

- ❖ Valuable in preparing your exceptional student for independence in the "Real World"
- ❖ Full-color pictorial series of visually structured tasks for teaching domestic, vocational and other independent living skills to individuals with autism
- ❖ Applicable to school, home, and community training sites

Laurie Eckenrode

Pat Fennell

Kathy Hearsey

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	4
Domestic Skills .....	18
Independent Functioning .....	32
Vocational Skills .....	49
Job Sites .....	60
Resources .....	66

Adapted Recipes

Cleaning

Cleaning Tables

Cooking

Kitchen Utensils

Laundry

Pet Care

Putting Away Kitchen Things

Recycling

Setting the Table

Sweeping

Washing Dishes

Domestic Skills

Washing Dishes

Wash Dishes from Left to Right (Dishes Separated into Containers),
then Watch Nemo© Movie

Dishwasher Flip Book

Dishwasher Checklist

Limit Dishwashing to
One Type of Item

Wash Dishes Work System
(with Pictured Written Cards)

Budgeting

Calendar

Clothes

Grocery Shopping

Hygiene

Lunch Choices

Money

Nutrition and Exercise

Packing

Telephone

Telling Time

Temperature

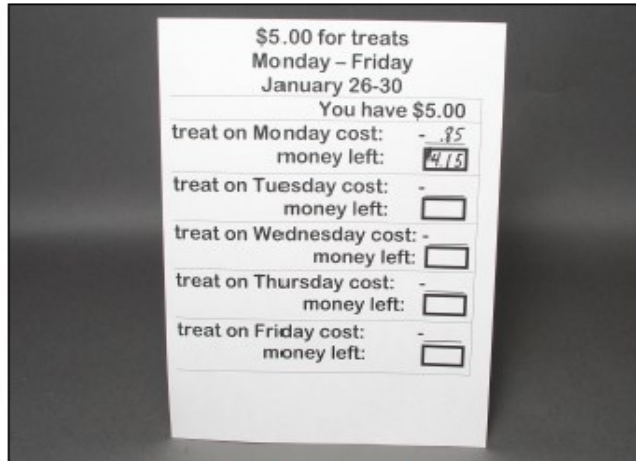

Time Management

Vocabulary Concepts

Independent Functioning

Budgeting

Budget Weekly Allowance

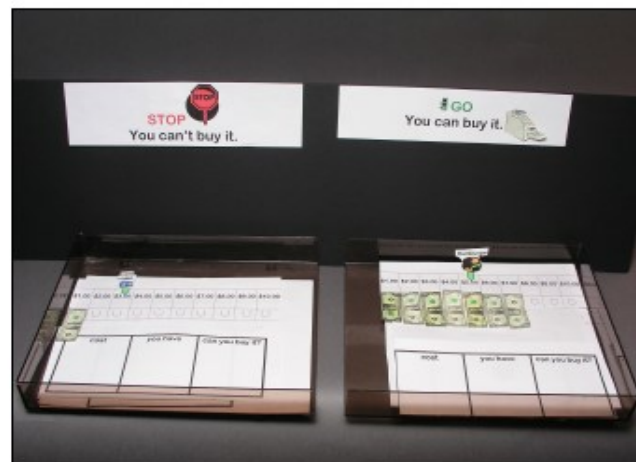

Budget Worksheet

Use "Dollar Line" to Determine if There is Enough Money to Purchase Items

Matching Written Amount to Amount with Coins

Use Worksheet to Determine if There is Enough Money to Buy

Match Price with Dollars, Using One-Up Method (Dollars Plus One Dollar for Cents)

Assembly

Collecting Materials

Filing

Measuring Length

Measuring Weight or Volume

Office Equipment

Quality Control Sorting

Sorting

Stocking/Inventory

Tools

Tasks Galore

For the Real World

Designed for teachers, therapists, and parents Features over 240 full-color photos of highly organized, multi-modal tasks that emphasize functional skills needed for daily living
Each task includes visual strategies that enhance independence in the home, school, community, and workspace

The authors are happy to share this second collection of tasks. About their first book
Tasks Galore, Gary Mesibov, Ph.D., Director of Division TEACCH says,
"I cannot imagine a more valuable resource."

Together, the authors have over 60 years of experience working with exceptional children and adults in a variety of settings. They have also extensively trained professionals and parents around the world in structured teaching.

Visit our website:

www.tasksgalore.com

© Copyright 2004. All Rights Reserved Worldwide

